

Boys' High School Basketball Finals Telecast Statewide on NET Television

LINCOLN, Neb. (Feb. 20, 2008) -- A week ago, the best girls' high school basketball teams in the state battled it out for the state championship titles. On Saturday, March 8, the boys get their chance as the championship games in six different classes of the Nebraska boys' high school basketball tournament are broadcast live from the Bob Devaney Sports Center on NET1 and for the first time in crisp high-definition on NET-HD.

The "NSAA Boys State High School Basketball Championships" will begin at 9:30 a.m. CT with the Class C-1 finals. The day-long coverage continues with the Class D-1 championship game at 11:30 a.m. CT and the Class B title game at 1:30 p.m. CT.

The match-ups continue at 5 p.m. CT with the championship game for Class C-2, followed at 7 p.m. CT by the Class A final. The Class D-2 championship game concludes the day's action at 9 p.m. CT.

The "NSAA State Boys State High School Basketball Championships" will also be webcast live on NET's Web site (netNebraska.org). All that is needed is access to the Internet and a free Windows Media Player program. Webcasting of the series is a free service of NET.

Coverage of this annual sporting event is a co-production of NET Sports, Nebraska's Home for Sports, and commercial television station KOLN/KGIN, Lincoln and Grand Island, in cooperation with the Nebraska Schools Activities Association. NET1 and NET-HD are part of NET Television, a service of NET. For a complete program schedule, visit NET's Web site (netNebraska.org/television).
