

State High School Volleyball Championships Broadcast Live on NET Television

LINCOLN, Neb. (Oct. 28, 2009) -- The top high school girls volleyball teams in Nebraska take to the court to determine which schools will lay claim to the state championship trophies on "NSAA State Volleyball Championships" airing live statewide on Saturday, Nov. 14, on NET1 and in high-definition on NET-HD.

This annual championship competition will be broadcast from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Coliseum with sportscaster Larry Puntene and former University of Nebraska All-American volleyball standout Kathi Wieskamp calling the action.

The championship match-ups begin with the Class C-1 finals at 9:30 a.m. CT, followed at 11:30 a.m. CT by the Class D-2 contest and the Class A championship match at 1:30 p.m. CT. The finals action picks up again at 5 p.m. CT with the Class C-2 match, followed by the Class B competition at 7 p.m. CT and, wrapping up the day's action, the Class D-1 finals at 9 p.m. CT.

The volleyball championships will also be webcast live on NET's Web site (netNebraska.org). All that is needed is access to the Internet and a free Windows Media Player program. Webcasting of the series is a free service of NET.

"NSAA State Volleyball Championships" is a production of NET Sports, Nebraska's Home for Sports. NET1 and NET-HD are part of NET Television, a service of NET. For a complete program schedule, visit NET's Web site, netNebraska.org/television.
